How To Start Your Acting Career

The Right Way!
First of all, thank you for coming to visit my website www.actingcareerstartup.com! Allow me to introduce myself. My name is Anthony Smith.

I left a very successful business career in 2004 to pursue my passion of acting, writing and hosting big events. Since then I have been studying acting and have appeared in commercials, short, independent films and feature films. What I use my acting skills for the most though are in corporate videos and educational films and DVD’s as well as hosting.

I have a strong passion for two things. One is acting and the other is for teaching and helping others. That’s why I’m very involved in hosting live events and conducting seminars that help people and actors achieve what they want. I’ve been doing it for a long time and I love it!
And that’s why I decided to build www.actingcareerstartup.com a website that, at the time I am writing this is close to 100,000 visitors per month from over 160 countries around the world. 70% of those visitors come from the USA.

That website has literally hundreds of pages of information that can help you start or further your acting career if you so desire, if that’s what you really want.

This eBook might seem very short, as you will see a series of links on the next pages. But all those links will take you back to specific pages on the website that you will be able to read or watch a video. Be advised that the information I give you will help you only if you actually apply what you learn. There are no magic wands that will suddenly make you an actor. You have to work for it and work hard. If you have some base talent and really and truly work to get what you want, then you can become someone who lives his dream of being involved in one of the greatest and most rewarding professions in the world. Acting!

Good luck and have fun with this eBook!

Getting Your Acting Career Started

Here are some things to consider when starting your acting career.

1. Watch the video on the home page about how you know if acting is right for you:

WAIT! There’s more!

Those things I mentioned above can definitely help you to get a start in your acting career. But you have to do it all yourself. Or should I say, all by yourself, all alone. If you want something more, if you want more help, if you would like me to help you personally, then I have something to tell you.

I was sitting outside the audition room in one of my very first auditions and overheard a conversation between two actors. I listened. I thought about what they said. And it hit me! I couldn't believe how simple it was. They talked like it was a big secret that they didn't want anyone to know. But I heard it and I did what they said. And it helped me to get 8 acting jobs in the first 2 1/2 months from the time I started seriously trying to get acting work. It worked. And I was happy!
That information is so cool, so simple and has helped so many actors get acting work fast and I’m willing to bet that it will help you too!

You know, it really is like a secret. You want to know why? Because there are so many actors that don’t know it and that’s why they keep not getting acting work. That’s why they keep struggling. It’s really too bad. If you really want to start an acting career, then don’t let that happen to you too.

It's simple, yet amazing. And it really works!
